MORENA, BIERLAND AND WHITE SAILS AMONG STYLE WINNERS OF THE 2017 WORLD BEER AWARDS

Our international and highly respected judging panel has identified the best beers in each of the 72 styles of the annual World Beer Awards. With over 1900 beers from more than 36 countries entered into this year's awards, judges blind tasted and scored the entries two rounds of judging.

The final round will be held in London, where 100 international brewers, industry experts and journalists taste and vote on the World's Best Beers 2017 in eight categories, which will be announced on 21 September.

Adrian Tierney-Jones, European Chairman of the World Beer Awards said: "The winners in this year's World Beer Awards demonstrate that the global beer revolution is not going to go away any time soon. We have winners from the traditional brewing countries of Belgium and Germany, while the brewing powerhouse that is North America is also represented; however, the emerging brewing nation of Brazil also excites me immensely, which is why we held for the first-time a round one in Brazil for all Brazilian entries.
